BUCKSKIN LODGE No. 412, ORDER OF THE ARROW

NASSAU CO. COUNCIL

VOL. 17, NO. 10

"The Cry of the Wolf of Self-Reliance"

JUNE 24, 1968

It's That — Time Again!

6^{MINI}-CONFERENCE

With spirits aloft and our goals set high, the members of Bucks skin Lodge leave school and embark upon another promising summer of fun and service. After this past spring's record elections, one of the largest groups of inductees will enter our Lodge in ceremonies to be held at Camp Wauwepex and Onteora Scout Reservation. Undoubtedly, the warm season is here, and it's that time again — time for summer camping.

As usual, the Ordeal tapouts will be held four times during the season, the second Sunday of each period, at each camp. At Wauwepex, the ceremony will take place at the Visitor's Day campfire, while Onteora will again have tapouts at the individual program area campfires. The Pre-Ordeal will begin that same evening and run through the next day, Monday. After successful completion of the ordeal, the candidates will participate in the impressive Ordeal ceremony Monday night, to be followed by the much-awaited "feed".

The Brotherhood tapout will be held each period at both camps during the Visitor's Day campfire, the ceremony itself being scheduled for the latter part of the second week. The Vigil Honor candidates, however, will be called out only during one period at each camp, to be designated at a later date.

At Onteora Scout Reservation, Don Heiberg, our Lodge Chief, will

LODGE HANDBOOK ON SALE

Through diligent work, the Orientation Committee has managed to revise the Lodge Handbook and prepare it in time to go on sale at summer camp. It has been planned that this, the sixth edition, will be dedicated to the late Richard Harper, our Lodge Chief in 1957-1958 who died while serving his country in South Vietnam.

The newly designed handbook has been completely updated, including all the changes in the bylaws and the most recent Lodge administration's history. For those Brothers who will be sealing their vows in the Order soon, this issue will again contain the Brotherhood questionnaire. Don't miss your chance to get this informative copy of the Lodge's rules, laws, and background.

September will bring one of the rare Scouting occasions that a Lodge member will experience, the Area 2-J Conclave, being held September 6 - 8 at Camp Wauwepex.

The conclave took many months of planning by the Area and National Relations Committee in conjunction with other lodges -- Aquehonga, Man-a-hatten, Ranachqua, Shinnecock, Shu Shu Goh, and Suanhacky. Because of the large expected turnout from the nine-lodge area, Bucks skin has been limited in its delegates. Although our quota has been filled, there is always the possibility of a cancellation. If you have not registered and wish to be placed on a stand-by list or if you must revoke your reservation, immediately contact Don Heiberg, c/o Onteora Scout Reservation, Livingston Manor, New York.

The "mini-conference" will feature dance team competition and discussion groups with other Lodges, including branches from Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Swimming, archery, and shooting will also be available. The trading post will be open, selling candy, soda, and other member lodge materials. In

MEMORIAL WEEKEND — MEMORABLE

The four-day Onteora Spring Weekend held during the Memorial Day Holiday is one that will not soon be forgotten. I think it can be truly said that the over one hundred Brothers who attended found it to be a most pleasurable and gratifying experience.

After departing from Harkness, the two bus-loads of boys (sixty-four in all) alighted at the dining hall for the usual evening snack before seeking a place to sleep. Friday morning the Brothers arose bright and early and began work after breakfast. Over one-half of the many projects were completed before sundown and dinner. That evening a party was held in the Long House to top a perfect day. Root beer -- in old-fashioned kegs -- was served, while the tired workers watched movies and an interesting snake show. Soon, however, their spirits were lifted (the root beer must have done it) and they joined in a song-fest.

Saturday was again spent in cheerful service. Among the extremely large number of projects completed was the laying of foundations for two new showerhouses, the construction of tent platforms and

In the wake of the recent tragedy that shook the world - the death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy - several queries come to mind. How could such a thing come to pass in a country such as ours? Why did it happen? Who is to blame?

We can't all be condemned for one man's wrongs, but was the assassin alone in his thinking - were his actions revolutionary? Senator Kennedy was not the first man to be stilled by another's vengeance, and will not be the last. Indirectly, every person whose temper has ever flared in anger is responsible for the events which occurred. Only through understanding and mutual love can we halt the overwhelming violence characteristic of our times.

The Brotherhood of Cheerful Service - a title that has been employed to delineate our Order. Certainly the "service" aspect has been stressed to the utmost, but what about "brotherhood"? This is the concept the Order of the Arrow is founded upon, and must be omnipresent. Through the years many of our Brothers have made their places in the world, and continued to share the sense of brotherhood that they first realized as a member. It is gratifying to be a part of a movement such as this - a movement that strives to overcome the vehemence in the world today.

In the coming year we will be called upon to display this sense of fraternity to others. We must do so without hesitation in the hope that the ways of brotherhood will become universal. I, myself, will do my utmost to further our Order's cause and will welcome any response to my thoughts. Any Brother wishing to express himself in our Lodge need only to take advantage of his own paper to share his impressions of the purpose of our Order - a Brotherhood of Cheerful Service.

-- Joe Bruno

During the Onteora weekend, the 1967-1968 administration came to an end in the true spirit of the Brotherhood of Cheerful Service. The successful endeavors of our immediate Past Lodge Chief Paul Plate were reflected in the tremendously successful four-day weekend. I congratulate Paul on a fine job well done!

Many of the general Lodge policies initiated during the past years will be continued in this administration. The Buckskin Uniform Drive, which is now being suggested by the National Order of the Arrow committee as a Lodge "Good Turn," will be carried on and hopefully every underprivileged Scout in the Council will receive a uniform. Cheerful Service will be given and further donations will be contributed to the construction of the Buckskin Camp at Onteora Scout Reservation. The new weekend job sign-up procedure will be continued to create greater service. Brotherhood candidates will be required to serve as taskmasters during Ordeals.

A more concentrated effort will be made to get more Brothers to serve on committees. It will be mandatory that every chairman form a working committee instead of doing the job himself. The chairman will be required to contact all interested Brothers and get them to help out when there is work to complete.

The Order of the Arrow was founded as a Society of Honor Scout Campers and Arrowmen are expected to promote Scout camping. Buckskin Brothers will be expected to promote such camping in their own units through personal participation. The Camp Promotions Committee will start work immediately to get more units to go on short-term camping trips. Starting early in the winter, a tremendous effort will be made to contact as many of the council units as possible and convince them to go to summer camp.

To further our relationship with the individual units of each district and to coordinate the efforts of the various committees, adult district advisors are being appointed. They will attend district roundtables and relate to the unit leaders of the services and activities of the Order.

Under the revised unit Election Procedure, more Scouts were elected to Arrow membership this year than ever before in Buckskin Lodge history. The job of inductions will not be as difficult as it could be if all Brothers attending summer camp lend a hand during the Ordeals. Please attend the O.A. meeting during your Summer Camp period and offer a day of Cheerful Service. Buckskin Lodge will be headed by Dennis Klein as Summer Camp Chief at Camp

The joys and hope, the grief and anguish of the men of our time are the joys and hope, the grief and anguish of all Brothers. No one who is genuinely human fails to find an echo in his heart, for his is a community composed of men who, united in an Order and guided by an Obligation, press onward toward cheerful service and are the bearers of a message of love intended for all men.

Ours is a new age of history, with critical and swift upheavals spreading gradually to all corners of the earth. At no time have men had such a keen sense of freedom, only to be faced by new forms of slavery in living and thinking. There is, on the one hand, a lively feeling of unity and of the compelling solidarity of mutual dependence; on the other hand, there is a cleavage of bitterly opposed camps. We have not yet seen the last of bitter political, social, and economic hostility or racial and ideological antagonism, nor are we free from the specter of a war of total destruction.

"We all search for brothers... it is within some of us to make brothers of our fellows and strangers... to beat down hate and partings." Extending a hand in brotherhood is one thing, but to love all as brothers and to prove it is the task of the membership of the Order of the Arrow.

Don't be content to wallow in the sunlight and admit discouragement. Stand up and truly catch the higher vision. How is brotherhood to be reached if all neglect to react? Open your eyes to the mystic bond of brotherhood. Only then can we overcome hatred and despair.

I challenge each of you to fight for the ideals of your organization. Only through our constant efforts will our eyes rest upon the light green meadow of peace and understanding where men live a Brotherhood of Cheerful Service. "Until you have become really, in actual fact, a brother to everyone, brotherhood will not come to pass."

Thank you for the honor of having led Buckskin Lodge towards such a Brotherhood. "Nothing we have done will ever be good enough again."

Wauwepex and I will serve as Chief at Onteora.

The challenges of the coming year are not easy and all Brothers will be needed to make this administration a true success. The great potential of Brotherhood, Leadership, and Cheerful Service present in Buckskin Lodge can and will be developed. I command each Brother to wear his squaw feather of Cheerful Service and Leadership in the true spirit of Brotherhood!

COMMITTEE

Camp Promotion

With the start of summer camp, the Camp Promotions Committee completes a very successful year. Twenty-four programs were conducted by the over sixty members of the committee and these were extremely fruitful, indeed. On March 3rd, a training session was held at Harkness to instruct the members on the proper methods for presenting the latest program. This was complemented by a workshop on April 27th, in which the scripts and slides were updated and organized. Also, the revision of the "Where To Go" booklet is already in progress. The competent district chairmen must be congratulated on their fine work.

Ceremonial..

This year, the ceremonial committee, with its twenty-three active members, managed to accomplish a great deal of work. The Ordeal Ring at Onteora was vastly enlarged, and several new podiums were acquired to enhance the rings. New bonnets were constructed and the work on the newly-bought costumes is already underway. With over three hundred dollars of equipment, the coming year looks promising.

Orientation..

The work of this past year's Orientation Committee draws to a close as the new season begins this summer. With over twenty-five members, the committee served during summer camp and at all the weekends to help induct and inform candidates. The little-publicized work of the committee includes the rewriting of the orientation program, the printing of committee sign-up cards and several booklets, the revision of the Lodge Handbook, and the submitting of articles for the Nassau Charger. The members have helped this committee to do a fine job this year which I am sure will continue in the future.

Trunk.....

In addition to its regular money-making function, the Trunk made an effort to serve Brothers better, on a more personal level this past year. This was done through a mail order service, whereby Lodge members could buy items directly from their homes. This system was instituted not to obtain more income, but to give Brothers who cannot attend certain Lodge functions the opportunity to purchase materials at their convenience. The mail order service was successful due to the large response from customers.

In addition to the mail order Trunk, a small-scale Trunk was set up at Harkness to serve Brothers who pass by the Council office. This was also another added convenience to Lodge members.

New designs were placed on some items in the Trunk, so as to add variety and increase the income. New neckerchief slides were made, as well as a new mug (the design being selected by the results of a contest). The Buckskin Division patch was also slightly altered - the date was changed to 1968. An ample supply of these and other popular Trunk items was kept.

For those Brothers going to summer camp, there are some goodies in store for you from the Trunk. Because there will be entirely new Buckskin Division patches this summer, more publicity will be given to the Trunk at both camps. That's right - the color scheme of the patch will be completely changed, boasting a new name: "Buckskin Camp" (its proper name). Tell all your non-member friends about it, too, because they can also buy them. New mugs are expected to arrive and will be put on sale at both camps.

IMPORTANT: If you became a Brotherhood member this Lodge year and have not as yet paid for your sash ($1.00), please send the money to me immediately.

tables, and the repairing of the battered camp trucks. In preparation for the camping season, the Trading Post, Catholic Chapel, and the council areas were cleaned and made ready for use. On the waterfronts, the annual chore of painting the rowboats and the South Waterfront was accomplished, the new lookout tower started, the amphitheatre level raised, and the docks brought down to be put in place.

Stopping work at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, the Brothers then participated in a soul-stirring rededication ceremony using Wildcat Falls as an impressive backdrop. The Lodge members rededicated themselves to the purposes and principles of the Order. A unique buffet supper was held directly afterwards and later that evening the officer's installation took place. At the campfire Saturday night, our new Lodge Chief was neatly "shortened" a notch by the witty and humorous skits by Ken South.

But Don deserved it, for it was his idea that had the Brothers awakening before breakfast for church services and later a convocation of faiths discussion. That morning, an open executive meeting allowed all the Brothers to participate in a discussion concerning National Policy and the home troop elections.

Of course, no weekend would be complete without a bus breaking down, and this was no exception. The malfunction of one bus caused the happy Brothers to return home cramped into one bus while their gear arrived two days later. All in all, it was a successful and memorable weekend.

O.S.R. INSTALLATION MAKES IT OFFICIAL

At a brief but inspiring ceremony which was the highlight of Saturday evening's campfire, the old administration made way for the new.

With the traditional exchanging of Indian bonnets, our former Lodge leaders passed on their responsibilities to Don Heiberg, Lodge Chief, and Jack Billi, Little Lodge Chief. Carlos Kebe, our other Little Lodge Chief, was missing from the ceremony (he's in Germany!) The new officers, which include Tom Reinhart as Treasurer, Ken Light as Recording Secretary, and Chris Finnerty as Corresponding Secretary, pledged to do their best in the coming year.

regulate the Lodge Activities during the summer. Dennis Klein, former Nominating Chairman, has been appointed as acting Lodge Chief at Camp Wauwepex for the 1968 summer camping season. Both Chief's have announced that Lodge meetings will be held during each period at a date to be disclosed in the camp dining halls. All members are urged to attend.

Of course, as stated in the by-laws, "no person is to be inducted for Ordeal or Brotherhood membership at summer camp who is not attending camp for that period." Due to the extremely large number of candidates, all the help we can recruit is needed to make sure the Lodge functions smoothly during the period. Guides and taskmasters are desperately in demand. This is your Lodge, and it is your duty to serve.

In addition, a patch, patterned after the valuable Region-2 Patch, will be provided on a "one-to-a-Brother" basis.
