

A. G. Boesel of 26 Broadway, Manhattan, announces that the Trout & Skeet Club of New York has been formed, taking over the 2,000-acre preserve formerly the property of the old Orchard Lake Club, at Orchard Lake, Livingston Manor, N. Y. The club will make available in proper season lake fly fishing for trout; stream fly fishing; grouse shooting and other features of angling and hunting. In addition a skeet and trap shooting range will be maintained.
