Excerpts from

THE SACHEM'S PRAYER

By WILLIAM PIEL

Lo! our camp and hearth are broken,
Our canoes on briny beaches;
At the council-ring were spoken
Last farewells in sorrowed speeches.

Guide us to another hunting,
Where Thy bounty be as kindly,
Where the waters of our wonting
Lavish bliss on us as blindly!

Hail! O Father, for the vision!
Lo! Wau-we-pex flashes brightly
Happy omens of its mission;
And my spirit answers blithely:

May this place of our Good Waters,
And the joy of Thy creation
Fill the sons of other daughters
With the thanks of all my nation!
