

Scout Camp Site To Be Dedicated

Several hundred Nassau Boy Scouts and their families will attend the dedication of a 2,400-acre camp site at Livingston Manor,

N. Y., tomorrow. Called the On-teora Scout Reservation, the camp will be used by some 100 Scouts a week for the rest of the summer. Eventually, it will be enlarged to handle 200 week. Sterling W. Mudge of Glen Cove, president of the council, will preside at the ceremonies.