

WADING RIVER

DIRECTOR ENTERTAINS SCOUT COMMITTEE TO CLOSE CAMP

Wading River, Aug. 29—Members of the camping committee of the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America, were guests at a banquet given by F. H. Covey, director of Camp Wauwepex, to mark the closing of the camp's 21st season. Mr. Covey was presented with an electric clock by members of his staff, following an informal program of songs and short talks.

Among the guests were Lucien Stanley, William Kniffin, Robert K. Atkinson, H. P. Hadfield and John Little of Rockville Centre; Carl Lord and Frederick Read of Port Washington, Russell Lauver of Mineola, Joseph Fleming of Hempstead, Dr. E. C. Smith of Woodmere, Robert Sykes of Bellmore, I. F. Southworth of East Williston, Joseph Ammann of Baldwin and William Cook of Manhattan.

Camp Staff Present

Members of the camp staff present were Jack Rogerson and Richard Spooner of Floral Park, Albert Cullen of Hicksville, Lawrence Muller of Cedarhurst, Andrew Murphy and William Kreger of Rockville Centre, William Rescoral, Russell Downes, Dudley Smith, Arthur Bernstein, Edwin Sealy and Bill Carl of Lynbrook, Dr. Louis Frankel, Donald Davis, Thornton Smith, Robert Dixon and Jack McKeon

of Hempstead, Victor Feuerherd of Westbury, Charles Werner of Malverne, Donald Lord, Robert Brett, James Roberts, Lawrence Lord and Pierre Loiseaux of Port Washington, Robert Fairlie, Raymond Zoellner, Robert Cummings and George Carr of Great Neck, Fred Von Runnen of Elmont, Richard Horne and Robert Hudson of Valley Stream, Edgar Moore of Baldwin, Robert E. Allen and James R. Falconer of Glen Cove, Michael Martus and Ed Hoffman of Woodmere, Arthur Hostage of Garden City, Robert Meyer of Plandome, John Sykes of Bellmore, Herbert Grace of Wading River, George Cook of Manhattan and Louis W. Felter of Orlando, Florida.

The group which helped to break camp included Robert Best and George and Richard Hall of Garden City, Edward Klein of Cedarhurst, Frank Shakespeare, Carl Lord, Philip Nelson and Richard Clark of Port Washington, Louis Ruddock of Malverne, Harold Johnston of Hicksville, Leonard Goldstein of Lawrence, John Verity of Valley Stream, Louis Walker, Arthur Peterson and Clarence Davis of Hempstead, Sydney Armstrong of Great Neck, William Sinsram of Lynbrook and Halsey Cook of Manhattan.