

Camp Wauwepex Changes Officers

Mineola, July 14—Nassau County Boy Scouts camping at Camp Wauwepex, the county organization's Summer quarters at Wading River, now in full blast of activity, are finding many changes this year in the councillor staff. Only seven of last year's advisors have retained their posts, while the new councillors number 15. Two new councillorships have been created, that of assistant music director, held by Dandford Elias, and assistant quartermaster, jointly held by William Lotz and Jerry Rogers.

The seven who are maintaining their 1938 posts are Ed Hoffman, assistant craft director; Joe Oppenheimer, Carl Hesseler, Robert Fairlie and Don Lord, all craft helpers; Bill Cook, assistant waterfront director, and Ed Sholund, music director.

The other councillors are: Secretary, Marc Fischer; camp leaders, Ed Stanley and Jack Rogers; bugler, Larry Lord; editor of the camp newspaper, John Horgan; hospital orderly, John Sykes; nature study director, Charles Werner.

Also nature study helpers, Fred Mossa and Paul Murphy; assistant craft director, Robert Lotz; craft helper, Stanley Zauderer; dramatics director, Larry Muller; assistant waterfront director, George Schutte; waterfront helpers, Dick Knight and George Cook; adjutant, Al Cullen; troop leaders, Ed Grant, Frank Rogers, Dick Muller, Don Davis, Earl Brown and Bob Brett; cook's helpers, Jack Rogerson and Rudy Axelson; stewards, Bob Allen and Walter Hewitt.
