

Nassau Boy Scout Musical Festival Set for Aug. 19

Wading River, Aug. 11—The Buckskin Organization, honor society of Camp Wauwepex, announced today its annual custom of presenting an outdoor musical pageant would be resumed this year after a three-year wartime lapse. Wauwepex is the Nassau County Boy Scout Council camp.

The pageant chosen for this year is "Evangeline." Written by army Lt. Jack Rogers of Mineola and first presented in 1939, it is being revived for presentation Aug. 19 at 8:45 p.m.

The title role is to be played by Marilyn Nicholson of Manhasset, while Eagle Scout Robert Guder, also of Manhasset, has been cast as Gabriel. In the supporting roles will be Edward Marzo of Port Washington, Norma Toda of Great Neck, George Cook of Garden City, Wilbur P. Monsell of Malverne, Edgar and John McWilliams of Rockville Centre and Edgar Lellbach of Hempstead.
