Sixteen members of the Rotary Club of Mineola, Garden City and Hempstead, visited Camp Wauwepex last Monday for their annual one-day inspection tour and were officially welcomed by Chief F. Howard Covey. After a short inspection of the main camp buildings, a series of boxing matches were staged for their entertainment.

After visiting the new troop cabins, the members participated in a special swim at 4:45. At 5:30, Rotary Club president, Mead Stone, and Judge Dwight Rogers both gave short talks to the Scouts who had assembled for the regular evening retreat. The members then had supper in the mess hall at 6:30 P. M.

With camp drawing slowly to a close, the Scouts at Camp Wauwepex have been making rapid strides in advancement during the past few weeks. At the Council Fire last Friday evening, 115 awards were made, outside of the numerous emblems presented by different departments in camp.

With the best week of camp having just passed, the registration for the coming week has dropped to 229 Scouts. Last Saturday, 48 boys entered Camp Wauwepex for the annual rodeo carnival, to be held next Wednesday. The complete list of Scouts, who entered last Saturday, is as follows:
