

Saturday, according to the Court of Honor Committee. The committee is composed of Commissioners Sanford, Engstrom, chairman; Otto Allbright and Clarence Munson. The following Scouts earned their first class badges: William Unser, Irving Astmann, Emil Effeubeln and George Ruckelmore. Merit badges were awarded as follows: Athletics, Victor Harris, Frank Howard, Thomas Hutchinson, Arnold Levin and George Anderson; canoeing, William Critenden and Edward Mark; carpentry, Earl Hoff and Gilbert Mulhoff; civics, George Anderson, Wesley Demett, Belmont Ilowit and William Klobris; craftsmanship in wood, Earl Hoff; wood-carving, John Maile; first aid, Robert Clark and Melvin Schueller; first aid to animals, Belmont Ilowit, Alex Bloom, Thomas Finn, Emil Kremer and Joseph Regar; handicraft, Henry Henning and Lester Skinner; life saving, Earl Hoff, Simon Jacobs, John Smith, Robert Smith and Gordon Wright; personal health, Gordon Wright; physical development, George Anderson, Edward Fritz and Carlton Weinberger; pioneering, Jesse Fisher, Edward Fritz and Victor Harris; public health, Edmund Bodine, Murray Davis and Robert Leo; sculpture, Harry Oldfield; signaling, Gordon Wright and Edward Andrale; swimming, William Klobris and Alfred Levin. The commissioner presented star badges to Robert Clark, Earl Hoff, Frank Howard, Murray Davis, Thomas Finn and George Anderson. The coveted life badges were presented to Scouts Edward Fritz, Victor Harris, Thomas Hutchinson, Carlton Weinberger and Gordon Wright. The Court of Honor committee passed upon John P. Kirkwood as an examiner in the bird study merit badge and Herman L. Thleme, Jr., as examiner in first aid and safety. Edwards to Speak The Hon. Elvin N. Edwards, District Attorney of Nassau County, will deliver the address of celebration at the Nassau Scouts dedication at Camp Wauwepex this afternoon, at the camp parade grounds at Deep Pond, Wading River. Mr. Edwards, long an enthusiastic advocate of scouting, considers the Boy Scout movement as the only practical contribution of the present day toward good order and real Americanism. A rousing welcome is in store for him when the Scouts at camp, who are preparing the greatest scouting fete ever staged on Long Island. All details of the water carnival and surprise program are being made letter perfect in preparation for Long Island's greatest picnic party, for which the famous Sunrise Trail Band of the Long Island Railroad will give a concert. Dr. Scharf to City. Dr. John H. Scharf of Camp Wauwepex, Wading River, has been unexpectedly called back to the city. Dr. Scharf was popular with the Scouts from the Nassau County Council, for he not only tended to his medical work, but also assisted Scouts in passing their tests. He will be greatly missed by the Scouts at the camp. In leaving the doctor wrote the following letter to the Scouts: "July 29, 1927. "Dear Fellows: "It is with a great deal of regret	that I must say goodbye to you. I will leave this Sunday, for I must return to my duties at the hospital. "I have enjoyed my association with everyone at Camp Wauwepex and am proud that I was allowed the privilege of being here this year, even though for such a short time. "I hope I shall be given the opportunity again next year, and perhaps then I will be able to stay all summer. "Be well, fellows, and have a good time, for you are at a wonderful camp, and are among real men. "Sincerely yours, "JOHN H. SCHARF." Camp Kanohvet Big Winners Every award given last week at the Brooklyn Boy Scouts' summer camps in Bear Mountain was won by Camp Kanohvet. It is announced at Council headquarters. It is said that Camp Kanohvet is setting a precedent in interest taken in camping and scouting subjects. The mess hall of this camp is now decorated with a banner denoting that Camp Kanohvet is the cleanest and most orderly of the eight Brooklyn camps. A Scoutcraft banner shows the efficiency of the camp members in scouting subjects. The camp also possesses a war canoe for the cleanest and safest waterfront. The most thrilling contest of the past week was the White Bar relay, won by Kanohvet in 4 hours, 49 minutes and 5 seconds, which breaks
---	---

COMING

We figure
The man who better Used
he believed to get, is coming some day from Dodge Brothers

B/HOP, McCORM
BROOK

1177 BEDFORD AVE.
6515 5th Avenue
139-25 Hillside Avenue
Cornaga Ave. & Broadway

A USED CAR IS ONLY
AS THE DEALER