

* * *

Nassau Camp Open

Wauwepex, the summer camp of the Nassau County Boy Scouts, opened last Saturday with an enrollment of 150. About 15 staff members and 20 older Scouts were at camp one week earlier to set it up. This year camp is very much changed. About $30,000 worth of improvements are being made.

F. Howard Covey of Great Neck is the camp director, and his staff includes Hazen A. Ross, assistant camp director; Jerry Lowenberg, director of waterfront activities, assisted by David Porter and Vincent Theisen; Leroy K. Henry, museum director, assisted by Peter Gragis; Francis McCourt, director of activities; Robert Phelps, musical director, assisted by Francis Sturge; Lou Felter, director of handicraft, assisted by Charles Terry, Walte Dllg and Dick Foster; Unit Directors K. Lawrence and Donald Cunningham; Martin Coffin, camp secretary; Robert Porter, adjutant; Alfred Wessmann, quartermaster; Jesse Bean, maintenance; Jerry Friedman, bugler, and a commissary department headed by Charles Jones, chef; privates Dougherty and Hammond, army cooks; Norman Martin and Charles Trinkaund, stewards, and Charles L'Homedien, commissary helper.