Camp Wauwepex, the Nassau County Council Camp located at Wading River, L. I., opened its 13th season last week with the largest enrollment of Scouts in three years. The camp encircles a crystal clear lake more than a mile and a half in circumference with 600 acres of woodland to roam around in. The camp is under the direction of "Chief" F. Howard Covey. Almost every community in the county is represented at the camp.
