

3,000 Queens Scouts To Show at Mineola

Mineola, Sept. 12.—Three thousand Boy Scouts will perform at the Mineola Fair on Friday next under and near a large tent. Boys who attended summer camps will lead in activities.

Louis Felter, handicraft instructor at Camp Wauwopex, will be in charge of the boys. Some of the activities to be demonstrated will be:

Conservation merit badges by Troop 113, of Westbury; signalling merit badges, Troop 36, Rockville Centre; cycling merit badge, Troop 149, Elmont; tin can craft, Troop 65, Valley Stream; first aid merit badge, Troop 9, Freeport; electricity merit badge, Troop 33, Hempstead; aviation merit badge, Troop 93, Franklin Square; airplane models, Troop 147, Sea Cliff; stunts, Troop 144, Rockville Centre; pioneering merit badge, Troop 4, Floral Park.

An Indian village will be set up by the Scouts who attended the Indian village at Camp Wauwopex during the summer. These boys will give demonstrations in the various Indian crafts and ceremonies under the leadership of E. W. Mangam.

Troops 4 and 83 of Floral Park, and 149 of Elmont, have reserved space for troop exhibits as well as demonstrating other activities Friday and a Long Island pageant will be given.

The second division of the parade will show modern Scouts in full uniform with American and foreign troop flags. There will be a number of floats in the parade, including those from Troop 64, Hicksville, a model of Walt Whitman schoolhouse; Troop 108, Great Neck, sports on Long Island. Also Troop 33, Hempstead, and 149 of Elmont, with a volunteer fire department; Troop 120 of West Hempstead, Roosevelt and his Rough Riders; aviation, Troops 43 and 147 of Sea Cliff; automobiles, past and present, in charge of F. Fisher, of Merrick; Sea Scout Troop 2, of East Rockaway, will stage a breeches buoy drill; Troop 4, Floral Park, will erect a bridge with a 20-foot span and also a 20-foot signal tower.