

SCOUT CAMP PRAISED

Members of Freeport Council Tell of Improved Conditions at Wauwepex.

Freeport, Sept. 4.—Scout leaders speaking at a meeting of the Freeport Council in Christ Lutheran Church praised the work at Camp Wauwepex in Wading River which closed at the end of August. They said that in every way there was much improvement over the conditions in 1929.

The speakers, who spent from several hours to a week at the camp, included Scout Commissioner Herman Gissel, Deputy Commissioner Norman Bangle, Chairman Ernest Nathan, Walter Krudop, Scoutmaster of Troop 48, and Charles Sterns, of Troop 46.
