

Party to Honor Scout Ranger

Herbert Grace, retiring after 23 years as ranger at Nassau Boy Scout Camp Wauwepex near Wading River, will be honored Saturday at a fellowship barbecue party, according to Supreme Court Justice Cortland A. Johnson, president of the Nassau Boy Scout Council.

The affair, at which Assemblyman John J. Burns will be master of ceremonies, will be held at the Harkness Scout training center on Shelter Rock Road, Searingtown, Johnson said.

Johnson said the program honoring Grace, ranger at the camp since Sept. 1, 1930, includes the presentation of Silver Beaver awards to six Nassau residents for their work in behalf of the Boy Scouts.
