

Garden City—Harold R. Doughty has been named dean of admissions of Adelphi University. He replaces Daniel L. Bratton, who has been named dean of student affairs. Doughty, who lives in Port Washington, taught at Paul D. Schreiber Senior High School in Port Washington until he became associate admission director at Adelphi in 1965.

Farmingdale—A total of $249,458 in federal grants has been awarded to State University's Agricultural and Technical College at Farmingdale during the period Jan. 1 to May 15, according to Dr. Charles W. Laffin Jr., president of the college.

Lynbrook—The Lynbrook Public School System will conduct a registered summer school for secondary school students, designed to serve both students who must repeat courses they failed and those who wish to enrich their secondary education. All classes will be in Lynbrook Senior High School July 5-Aug. 17. For further information, contact James M. Lennon, summer high school principal, at LY 3-2110.

Roslyn—Jewish Boy Scouts and leaders will gather at Camp Wauwepex in Wading River for a conclave this weekend. Groups who wish to attend can get information by calling 746-8282. Individual Scouts may not attend unless they make arrangements to come with another troop.

Hempstead—Joseph W. Finver of West Hempstead has been installed as the new commander of the Hempstead Bay Power Squadron.

Rockville Centre—The Rev. Douglas F. Verdin has been appointed minister of St. Marks Methodist Church of Rockville Centre. The Rev. Mr. Verdin assumes his new post following a four-year term as superintendent of the Hudson West District of the Methodist Church.

Oceanside—Morton Harrison has been named principal of School No. 1 in Oceanside, effective in September. Harrison has been assistant principal in School No. 8 for three years, and has been teaching in the Oceanside system since 1955.

Long Beach—The Long Beach Library board of trustees will hold an open meeting at 8:30 PM Friday in the library. Copies of the library's proposed budget will be distributed at the meeting, according to Mrs. Marian Segriff, a trustee.