

Good Scouts Put On Good Show

Camp Wauwepex — Nassau scouts had the time of their lives Saturday night at the first minstrel show ever presented at the camp here.

Completely a Nassau production, the event was featured with a variety of skits, song and dance men, comedians and all the necessary characters to make up a successful minstrel show.

High spot of the evening was a between acts sermon delivered by the "Truthful Parson" Donald Davis, Hempstead, on the "Weaker Sex." Robert P. Brett, Port Washington, directed the show, and the stage manager was Leonard Goldstein.
