

Camp Wauwepex Will Open on July 7

Mineola — Camp Wauwepex, sponsored by the Nassau County Council of Boy Scouts, will open at Wading River on July 7 and continue its program until Aug. 25. F. Howard Covey, Scout Executive, announced at Council headquarters, here, today.

Covey, who will be camp director, reported that applications were being received in large numbers, and urged parents not to wait too long. Boys will participate in pioneering, out-door liens shall pay to the County Treasurer ten per centum of the amount for which the tax liens have been sold immedicrafts, camouflage and other woods activities.

The program has been designed to fit activities to the physical abilities of Scouts in varying age groups. Boys will be divided into two camps, one directed by William White of Freeport and the other, by James Fitzpatrick of Garden City Park.

Dr. Fred Frankel of Riverhead will be camp physician, and Dr. E. E. Smith of Orlando, Fla., also will be there during the season.

Trains for the camp will leave Mineola each Friday morning, and bus transportation from Manorville to the camp will be provided.
