

Boy Scouts Honor Covey at Wauwepex

Wading River—Fifty Boy Scouts and scout leaders of the Southeast Nassau District paid tribute to F. Howard Covey at the weekly council fire at Camp Wauwepex, Friday night. Covey, who retired this Summer as Nassau scout executive and is serving his final season as director of the camp, was presented with an album of autographs and tributes to his years of leadership.

Milton C. Everett of Roosevelt, district chairman, made the presentation. George L. Smalling of Freeport was master of ceremonies and W. Douglas Mathewson of Freeport represented scoutmasters at the ceremony.
