

Camp Wauwepex Starts 31st Year

Wading River—The 31st Summer season of Camp Wauwepex, the Nassau Boy Scout Camp, opened over the week end with scores of youngsters filling tents and the campsite to capacity.

During the next two months some 3,500 Scouts from Nassau communities will take part in the camp program. Some of the phases of camp life are fly and bait casting, canoeing, marksmanship, archery, overnight hikes, water carnivals, county fairs, swimming, life saving and craft work. One of the weekly highlights will be cruises on Long Island Sound on the 60 foot sailing schooner "Amorita," owned and operated by the Scouts.
