

Full House at Scout Camp Wauwepex

Wading River—It's been a full house at Boy Scout Camp Wauwepex, here, for the past two weeks and accommodations for the next four weeks of camp are being rapidly filled.

Awards were presented by Unit Leaders William Rescorl of Mineola and Richard Spooner of Floral Park at a campfire ceremony last Friday. Stanley Frankenthaler of Rockville Centre and John Watson of Malverne were advanced to the rank of second class scouts, with first class being obtained by Harold Geiss of Baldwin and Peter Wingle of West Hempstead.

Camp singing was led by two former officers of the camp, Jack Rogers of Mineola and William Lots of Sea Cliff. Camp Director F. Howard Covey presided. On Thursday a one-act farce was presented with Paul Nicholas and Kenneth Nicholas of Manhasset in the cast.
