

Scouts Test Skill at Camp Wauwepex

Nassau Boy Scouts who attended two camp-o-rees have returned home after three days at Camp Wauwepex, as part of the spring scout training. One group was from the southwest district including Valley Stream, Elmont, East Rockaway and the Five Towns, and the other was from the central district including Garden City, Hempstead, Mineola, Farmingdale, East Meadow and West Hempstead.

They pitched tents on Friday and broke camp Sunday evening.

Dudley C. Snyder of Valley Stream was camp chairman of the southwest contingent of 210 scouts, 30 leaders and 28 patrols. Troop 20, of Cedarhurst won three of the five scoutcraft competitions.

District Scout Executive George Byrne was in charge of the central district group of 125 scouts and leaders. Troop 14 of Hempstead won first prize in the scoutcraft contests.
