

L. W. Felter, scout commissioner of Central Florida Council and also scoutmaster of troop No. 2 Orlando, is at Camp Wauwepex, Wading River, Long Island, the camp conducted by the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Felter this season and for several seasons past has been the director of the handicraft department. He has several assistants under him who are experienced in various lines of craft work. The Camp Wauwepex season runs from July 5th to August 23rd.