

Burning of $48,000 mortgage on Camp Wauwepex, Wading River, L. I., yesterday was part of ceremony-dedicating memorial to the late Mortimer L. Schiff, who paid off mortgage debt. John M. Schiff, son of the late financier, left, and Carl Stephen Brown, head of Nassau Scouts, center, look on as fire in urn held by Scout consumes mortgage.

Nassau Scouts Unveil Memorial to Schiff At Camp in Suffolk

Canceled $40,000 Mortgage on Site Is Burned and Ashes Scattered During Picturesque Dance—Benefactor of Boys Is Eulogized

Wading River, L. I., Aug. 15.—A stone boulder with tablet, erected to the memory of the late Mortimer L. Schiff, who at the time of his death in Oyster Bay, L. I., on June 4, 1931, was president of the Boy Scouts of America, was unveiled by the Nassau Council of the Boy Scouts yesterday at Camp Wauwepex, in Wading River.

Tamaqua Forces Hold Outing at Lake Ronkonkoma

More than 500 members and friends of the Tamaqua Democratic Club of Jamaica attended the fourth annual outing of the organization yesterday at Olds Vienna, Lake Ronkonkoma, L. I. Justice Lawrence T. Greener of the Court of Special Sessions is standard bearer of the club, and the president is Rudolph Newman.

Post $100 Reward For Identity of Hit-Run Motorist

Friends of Robert Klein, Who Died in Crash, Add $75 to Previous Offer

Rewards totaling $100 are being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the hit-and-run motorist who struck and killed Robert Klein, 24, of 21-13 Perseus Boulevard, Jamaica, early Thursday morning. The accident occurred at Middle Ave. and 11th St., Hollis.

Woman Abandons Car Before L.I.R.R. Train Wrecks It

An automobile owned and operated by Maryvare Brown of Oyster Ave., Valley Stream, was destroyed at 8:35 o'clock last night when it stalled at the Long Island Railroad crossing on Merrick Road near Belknap St., Springfield, Queens, and was hit by a southbound train.

Hark! The Watch