

Nassau Scouts Receive Awards

Mineola, Aug. 31—Camp Wauwepex the Nassau County Boy Scout Camp, received the highest safety rating given a waterfront camp, from Frank R. Hoercher, first aid and life saving field director from National Red Cross headquarters, it was announced today at the Nassau County Chapter House here.

Mr. Hoerscher with A. Sidney Hancock, Nassau life saving director, made a tour during the week of local beaches to inspect the Red Cross swimming and life saving activities.

Among those who have qualified as Life Saving Examiners through the Nassau County Chapter this year are:

John MacMurdo, Great Neck; John Beier, Westbury; Gustave Hemmer Jr., Island Park; Herbert Gregory, Great Neck; Marshall Barnes, Rockville Centre; Harry Thielman, Rockville Centre; Sam Marks, Valley Stream; Frank Heath, Sea Cliff; Louis Burger, Baltimore, Md.; Mary Brawer, Floral Park; Edith Zima, Merrick; Arlene Magaw, Rockville Centre; Harry Hartmann, Mineola; Madlen Fritz, Freeport; Henry Bode, Baldwin; Elizabeth C. Palmenburg, Freeport; Lane E. Covey, Great Neck, and Bernard Lincer, Lynbrook. Jules St. Germaine, Island Park; Harry O'Brien, East Rockaway; Charlotte Westcott, Port Washington; Anthony D. Fahmegettl, Glen Head; Gilbert Dorland, Valley Stream; Seymour Haber, Atlantic Beach Club; Mildred Lowton, Adelphi; Camille Springsted, Port Washington; Harry M. Rocher, Atlantic Beach; William Coakley, Merrick; Catherine Cole, Merrick; Elizabeth Finks, Cazenovia, N. Y.; Mildred K. Henderson, Brooklyn; Furman Stanley, Rockville Centre.

Miss Asenath Johnson, Lawrence; Charles F. Kellner, Woodmere; Elizabeth Lauck, Bellmore; Anne Stumpf, Roslyn Heights; Henry Peters, Manhattan; Walter Roomer, East Rockaway; James Steen, Garden City; Jane E. Stone, Minnesota; Myron Sterngold, Lawrence; Harold Barr, Stanwood, Mt. Kisco, N. Y.; John Keep, Jamaica; Russell J. Garnaas, Atlantic Beach; William Purves, Lynbrook; Sidney Hogerton, Garden City; Alfred Kumerow, Floral Park.