

Wauwepex Notes.

Nassau County Boy Scouts are carrying on an intensive all-around program at their Camp Wauwepex, Wading River, L. I., according to reports to the council headquarters. The four divisions at the camp, aside from the various activities of the Scout movement, are competing in volleyball, baseball, swimming and at the council fires. In the watermelon contest held last week John Guinter of Troop 38 of Rockville Centre copped first honors.