

158 Boy Scouts At Suffolk Camp

Registration for 1st Week Sets Record at Nassau's Wading River Grounds

Camp Wauwepex, Wading River, July 13—A total of 158 boys is registered at the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America camp here, for a first week, establishing an all-time record. One of the most popular spots in camp is the Craft Lodge, in charge of Lewis W. Felter, with John Wolff and Ed Hoffman, Eagle scouts from Woodmere, as assistants.

Boys who entered camp this week are:

Lawrence—Richard Hirsch, Leonard Goldstein, Robert Zweigel, Mortimer Friedman, Henry Dalsheim, Jerome Helfat, Howard Barnet; Floral Park—Harry Hale, Joseph Bardner, Clarence Loeffler, Wayne Duff, Robert Ioew, Robert Lonngren, Irving Walker, Robert Lonngren; Mineola—Robert Causeman, Frank Reilly, Edmund Grant, Chester Painter, Elwyn Walshe, James Gilroy, Matthew Presti.

Inwood—John Pinto; Woodmere—Justin Pearlstein, Charles Marqusee, Jerry Gutman, Warren Levy, Charles Ablowich, Charles Imershein, William Imershein, Jay Maisel, Walter Davis, Harold Polz, Heinz Zoehfeld, William Finch, Theodore Dietz, Harry Beaudouin, William Shedlin, Alfred Kaltman, Robert Cohen; Hempstead—Richard Forshay, John Mann, Thornton Smith, James Rhodes, Ted Yurkiwicz, Jack McKeon, Otto Franz, Fred Mossa, Allison Brown, Jack Connolly, Frank Korf; Lakeville—Eugene Ruddy, Norman Hauptner, Carl Armstrong, John Reidy, Ken Reidy, Robert Neiman.

Oceanside—Ole Wallden; Glen Cove—James Norris; Cedarhurst—Gerard Kass, Sanford Brunswick, Leonard Cohen, Richard Dernfest, Seymour Cohen, Gerald Bayer, Theodore Mortner, Joseph Weinstein.

Farmingdale—Oscar Bender, Ernest Binder; Malverne—John Holly, Lee Werner; Hicksville—Francis Sheridan, Paul Hein, Frank Hill; East Rockaway—Jack Nehemias, Charles Graf; Brooklyn—Martin Schneider; Manhattan—Munroe Poicher; Syosset—Ernest Rutishauser.