

Queens Boy Scouts' Camp on L. I. Has Annual Circus

Wading River, July 31—Camp Wauwepex, the Boy Scout Camp here, in the midst of one of the busiest seasons in its history, has just held a circus, an annual feature. Each troop had a special concession in the circus, and circus "money" was issued to the boys and used during the day. Lemonade, peanuts and candy, were much in evidence.

At a special council fire Robert Romeril of Troop 124, Bellerose, was presented with the Eagle Badge, high Boy Scout decoration, by Camp Director F. Howard Covey. The boy's mother pinned the award on him.

Lesser awards were made to Robert Schneider of Rockville Centre, William Nagle and Martin Callahan of Hempstead, Nicholas Forcillo and Charles Schaeffler of Masapequa, Joseph Hansen of Stewart Manor and Herbert Kunitz of Franklin Square.

The following boys were awarded the Wanka Waste, which in Indian means "good camper": Roger Pitkin of Masapequa, Charles LaPalme of Valley Stream, Edwin Robinson of Oyster Bay, Stuart Spellman of Rockville Centre, Stanley Romeril of Bellerose and Richard Dietjen of Westbury.
