Scout Leaders Participate In Program At Camp Wauwepex

Hackensack — Thirteen North Bergen Council Jamboree Troop leaders participated in a training encampment sponsored by Region 2, Boy Scouts of America, at Camp Wauwepex owned and operated by the Nassau County Council. The Camp is situated on Deep Pond near Wading River, New York.

Also attending from North Bergen Council and assigned to Jamboree section No. 17 at Santa Ana, Calif., where about 50,000 boys will be grouped into sections each containing from 1,300 to 1,500 Scouts and Explorers each, were four council Scouters who will give direction to this section.

The program included explanation of Jamboree Unit organization, items of emphasis in the health and safety program such as water, showers, refuse disposal, etc.

A typical campfire was set up on the shore of Long Island Sound to simulate the setting on the Pacific Coast where thousands of boys will be pitching tents and sitting around campfires overlooking the Pacific ocean.
