

Chapels at Wading River Scout Camp Dedicated

Catholic, Protestant and Jewish chapels were dedicated last Sunday at Camp Wauwepex, the Nassau County Boy Scouts of America training camp at Wading River. The chapels were part of the expansion fund campaign program conducted early in the year.

Rev. Michael C. Leavy, Nassau director of the Catholic Youth Organization, officiated at dedication of the Catholic chapel, which was made possible by the donations of parishioners of St. Mary's Church, Manhasset. William Tory conducted the campaign. The altar, vestments and appointments for the chapel were donated by Albert Davis of the Davis Construction Company in memory of his father, Louis.

The chapels will provide suitable facilities for each of the three resident chaplains to conduct regular religious services and a place where Scouts and Leaders can meet with the chaplain for advice and assistance.
