

Appendix B - The Anthology Series Schedules

Each episode of the anthology series, including repeats, is listed here in chronological order. Gaps in the dates are due to pre-emptions by the networks. Some of the episodes were aired under different titles for their repeat broadcasts, and in such cases, the title listed is the one used on that date. The listings are divided into individual seasons, with the title of the series, network, date, time and format listed. When the anthology series moved to The Disney Channel the series was no longer broken into separate seasons, and thus those years are grouped together.
